Senior Reveal Day 2019

Today was Senior Reveal Day! During our last schoolwide Mass of the year, our seniors were greeted with a standing ovation. As a part of Senior Reveal Day, they wore their college gear to reveal where they are attending college. Seniors and their friends and family then went to the Mark Gallo Health & Fitness Center where the CCHS Alumni Association hosted a BBQ and our seniors signed their college of choice on our Class of 2019 banner.

Congratulations to the Class of 2019!
Central Catholic FFA taking the stage at California FFA Conference
By: Nicole Morris

While most people were enjoying their spring breaks, some were gearing up for the California FFA State Leadership Speaking Finals. Spencer Cole ’22 has been working diligently on the FFA creed and practicing routinely since December. The FFA Creed contest is a public speaking event for freshmen only. Students recite the FFA creed and answer 3 questions about the creed and agriculture. The state speaking finals included 24 of the top students throughout the state who have qualified in their regions to attend. Spencer did an amazing job, placing 3rd in his group, but just missing the top 6 in the state. “Spencer has grown so much in his speaking ability, as well as his knowledge of agriculture. I am so proud of how well he represented Central Catholic FFA at the State Level, and know he will continue to be successful in public speaking events.”

Elisabeth Watkins also had a great week in Anaheim while interviewing for state scholarships and STAR awards. Elisabeth received the top honor scholarship for $3,000 from Zenith Insurance and will put that to good use next year while studying Agriculture Science at the University of Nevada, Reno. Each year California FFA recognizes STAR winners in a variety of areas such as STAR Reporter. To be eligible students must be the chapter elected Reporter, win at the Sectional and Regional levels and interview in front of a panel of 15 students at the state conference. There were 6 Regional Reporters awarded on stage, and Elisabeth Watkins was announced as the 2019 California STAR Reporter.

Lastly, Jeanette Gomes was the Central Region proficiency winner in Sheep Production and that got her to the state finals. Jeanette was among 3 individuals recognized as a Proficiency State Finalist for Sheep Production, and went through an intense interview about her Supervised Agricultural Experience project. Jeanette has over 20 ewes, lambed out nearly 30 lambs this past winter, and sells her lambs to local 4H and FFA members for county fairs. She has earned over $40,000 in the past 4 years and is extremely successful in running her business and marketing high quality sheep. Jeanette was presented on stage in front of 6,800 people with a plaque and will be back again next year to represent Central Catholic FFA.

Congratulations again to Spencer, Elisabeth and Jeanette for continuing to believe in yourself and in agriculture!
